

Who Am I?

Game Rules

Who Am I? is a guessing game where players use yes or no questions to guess the identity of a famous person or animal. Questions are based upon the characteristics of a person or animal everyone will be able to identify. This game works well with any size group, however the larger the group, the more fun the game becomes.

Make sure you explain the game to the group before you begin playing.

Each person tries to guess which famous person or animal they are by only asking "Yes" or "No" questions to gain clues about the name that is on their forehead.

- Do not look at the name on your forehead.
- Whilst playing the game interactively with other individuals', make sure you don't see who you are on the computer screen, as this will spoil the fun.
- If you accidentally see the answer, take another card and start again.
- Start by asking broad questions.
- Get more specific with your questions.
- State your guess as to your identity

Who Am I? Game Questions

Players may ask any question that can be answered by Yes or No. Play is more fun and proceeds at a steadier pace if the questions are like the following:

- Are you a male (female)?
- Are you an entertainer?
- Are you a singer (dancer, actor)?
- Are you a historical figure?
- Are you young (old)?
- Are you alive now?
- Are you considered beautiful (handsome)?

The following is an example of questions you might ask for the category “Disney Characters.”

- Are you animated?
- Yes?
- Are you a girl?
- Yes
- Are you a princess?
- No
- Are you blond?
- No
- Are you dark haired?
- Yes
- Do you talk to animals?
- Yes
- Are you Snow White?
- Yes

Stick a note to your forehead. Place the note on your forehead with your eyes closed. Make sure you don't read the answer while you put it to your head. Whilst playing the game interactively with other individuals', make sure you don't see who you are on the computer screen, as this will spoil the fun. If you accidentally see the answer, get a different card and start again.

Start with broad answers. You will have a given number of questions you can ask about your answer. Ask questions that will eliminate the widest amount. Big questions (like "Am I an animal?" or "Am I alive?") will get you to the point where you're able to steer your questions towards what you have confirmed so far about your answer.

Answer the other players' questions. Listen carefully to the other players and give answers to the best of your knowledge. Whether you're playing one by one or as a group, there will be many points in the game where you must answer questions they have about their card. If their card name isn't familiar to you and you don't know the specific answer they're looking for, allow another player to give the answer, or ask them to choose another question.
